

"Early morning, April 4

Shot rings out in the Memphis sky

Free at last, they took your life

They could not take your pride"

- U2

April 4, 1968, the day Martin Luther King Jr. was assassinated, he was fighting not just for civil rights, but for workers' rights—because workers' rights ARE civil rights. King was helping 1,300 Memphis sanitation workers who were on strike to gain the right to be treated with dignity.

Unions are under attack in this country, portrayed as protecting workers who don't do their jobs and demanding compensation and benefits we don't deserve.

YOU know that's not true.

Stand with us April 4. If we lose our union, we could lose what we've worked so hard to gain over the years.
